ALEXANDRIA HAPPENINGS.

Stewart Jones, about thirteen years of age, son of Col. B. Clay Jones, met with an accident yesterday evening that nearly cost him his life. He was riding up King street on borse back and near the corner of St. Asaph the animal stumbled and fell on his knees. The boy was thrown over the horse's head, and fell heavily on his head on the cobblestone roadway. These who saw the accident thought he had broken his neck, and several persons went to his agistance. He was assisted into Lemon's drug store, near by, where went to his assistance. He was assisted into Lemon's drug store, near by, where it was found that beyond a severe cut in the head and numerous bruises, he was unburt. Later he was assisted to his home in West End.

The new Home Telephene Company, which is to establish a telephone exchange in this city, is now busily engaged in the formation of a local board of directors, among the merchants who are stockholders in the company, and to them the entire control of the affairs of the company here will be given. The contracts for the work are now being placed and the company will be ready for business early in the spring. The Alexandria police have been requested to look out for Walter Bucker, a small colored boy, who is wanted for the theft of a riding saddle and weights from one of the racing stables at St. Asaph. The boy is said to live in Washington and has been loading about the track for some time.

The store of Max Pretzfelder & Co., on King street, near St. Asaph, was entered by theeves sometime during Thursday night, and a quantity of goods and some money that was in the cash drawer were stolen. The thieves effected an entrance, it is thought, through a second story from window on King street. The roblery has been reported to the police and Lieutenant James Smith has information that will lead to the arrest of the thieves.

BURKHOLDER'S SHADY RIDE

Pulled Mollie May Out of Second Money Right Under the Judges' Stand. Books Made a Losing-Con Lucy Won at Odds On-Siva Beat Lady Richmond-Entries and Selections

It was a good game that awaited the parrons of the across-the-river tracks who took in the races at St. Asaph yesterday. The betting was good, the finishes were in several cases exciting, and last, but not least by any means, four favorites gladdened the hearts and incidentally fattened the bank rolls of the talent by reaching the wire in the van-

There were two things that marred the sport. Siberia, with Jockey Ellis in the saddle, took a had cropper in the last race while rounding the first turn, and Mr. Johnny Ryan, the gentleman with the "scrapping" propensities, with the as-sistance of a strong, able-bodied excuse for a Jockey, named Barkholder, pulled Mollie May in the second race.

The last-named blur on a beautiful November afternoon's sport was a most barefaced piece of robbery, and the spectators rose in their might and demanded that the boy be given a "life sentence" instanter. Judge Martin either did not witness the "yank" or he is simply laying for Mr. Berkholder to put him on the ground

OWNER WAS TO BLAME. Possibly be took into consideration the fact that it would be hard to connect the owner with the mare's had showing, and that it would be an injustice to heap all of the punishment on the head of the boy, who was simply the tool of an unprincipled owner. At any rate, he did not allow his beavy hand to full upon the guilty parties, and the public was allowed to have their little kick out without being satisfied.

If the weather had been made to order it could not have been more perfect for racing. One of the books that went on Thursday failed to show up yesterday. They must have seen it coming, as those who did do business squit behind the game. The opening event furnished a surprise in Arabella, who went to the post at the fat odds of 7 to 1. The betting was lively in this race, nearly every horse receiving substantial support. Genesee II. and May Peters ran locked to the far turn, where Arabella passed them and drawing away. Peters ran locked to the far turn, where Arabeila passed them and drawing away in the stretch won bandily by a length. Con Lucy se far outclassed his field in the second race that 1 to 3 was gladly accepted against him when the bugle sounded. He took the lend when be choose and won easily. Mollie May was second to within a few yards of the wire, where Barkholder gave her a yank and Gajety got the decision by a neck.

SECOND FAVORITE TO CASH. SECOND FAVORITE TO CASH.

The second winning favorite was Dart.
He opened up at 7 to 10 but was not much fancied at first and closed at 6 to 5. After a short delay at the post they got away with Dart in the lead. He held command all the way, winning by two lengths from Joyeuse, with Jim Donien third.

The betting in the fourth race was confined to Tabal Cain, jr., and Columbus. The latter finally closed the choice at 11 to 5, with Cain at 3s. They finished first and second in the order of betting, with Duke of Fief third.

Duke of Fief third.

Duke of Fief third.

Lady Richmond was the choice in the next race, going to the post at 8 to 5, with Siva next in demand at 2s. In a good finish the latter managed to get up in time to win by half a length from Dr. Johnson, who beat Lady Richmond three.

The closing event went to Tribute, who was an 8 to 5 favorite. Glorianns at 6 to 1 easily got the place from India Rubber.

PERMANENT CURES EFFECTED

More Than a Score of Persons Interviewed Who Were Cured By the Ghloridum Treatment for Consumption — Citizens Graieful.

It will be remembered that The Times undertook the responsible and laborious task of interchewing persons said to have been cured of consumption by Dr. Shade. 1232 Fourteeant street, of this city, last fall, with no thought of bringing to light so great a discovery and blessing to humanity as it has turned out to be? It will also be remembered that we were equested to undertake this philanthropic work by citizens of the District. We said in our first report last fall that if Dr. Shade was deceiving the people and was a quack, it should be known by the public; and, on the other hand, if Dr. Shade was ciring the dread disease, consumption. The Times would be glad to publish the news in its columns.

We have, up to the present, interviewed twenty-eight persons, physicians, Congressmen, merchants and other citizens of Washington citry, who declare that Dr. Shade cured them of consumption after being given up by their family physicians and specialists of the District. The Gallauders and Canterbury Athletic Club foot ball teams lined up at Kendall Green yesterday afternoon, and played a fast and exciting game. During the first half neither side was able to score, but in the second half of the game the Canter-burys succeeded in carrying the ball overfor a touchdown, and were successful in kick-strong as usual, and several of the men ap-peared to be overtrained. The Canterburys, on the other hand, were in the pink odrys, on the other hand, were in the pins of condition, and put up a ratifing strong game. They can come very near defeating any foot bull team in town, and would have been the best eleven to have played the Thanksgiving Day game with the C. A. C. The line up of the teams was as follows:

SCHOONER FOSTER DETAINED. She Is Suspected of Having Cuban

Arms Aboard. Late last evening the Treasury Department received a telegram stating that the alleged fillbustering achooner James W. Foster, had arrived at the Delaware Breakwater.

Breakwater.

The deputy collector at Lewes, Del., has been instructed to board and investigate the Foster, and if in his judgment the evidence is sufficient to detain the schooner. It is learned officially that the Norwegian steamer Leon, with which the Foster was, it is alleged, to make con-nection, cleared from Philadelphia with only a cargo of coal on board. For Sale and Partition. Amanda Hawkins filed a bill in equity yesterday against Watson and Levi Haw-kins, to secure an accounting of certain business interests, and to require a partition by sale of a number of lots in square 594.

Otis, commanding the Department of the Columbia, and a final revision made by Assistant Secretary of War Doc. Ma.) George W. Davis of the Eleventh Infantry and Capt. J. T. French, jr., assisfant quar-termaster.

Merta's Modern Pharmacy. Cor. 11th and F 8ta

Cod Liver Oil, Pint Bottle, 50c.

Every druggist sells cod liver oil, but few sell good oil. If you need cod liver oil you want the best. We buy it in original tanks direct from the fisheries, and it is absolutely pure. We sell a bot-tle every half hour in the day; that is why it is fresh. The average druggist buys a gallon of uncertain quality from the wholesale druggist and it lasts him a month. There's a lesson in this. We sell all kinds of arugs, probably more than any 20 drug stores in Washington. Get a priced catalogue and you will know where to buy your drugs in the future.
